

112, Smile

Another night and it seems that
You made you cry yourself to sleep
Reminiscing on how it began
You found pleasure in this man
And you fell like an autumn leaf for his lies now you wanna leave
Give me just one chance
Cause I believe that I can make you smile
I know a thousand times
You sat alone and cried
You don't deserve it
Cause I believe that I can make you smile
Tranquillity the misery
Any day will it ever cease?
Here's my shoulder it's okay to cry
Cause I know how make it right
Cause you feel like you wanna leave
For his life now you won't lead
Baby give me one chance
Cause I believe that I can make you smile
I know a thousand times
You sat alone and cry
You don't deserve it
Cause I believe that I can make you smile
Whoaa
I never never make you cry
So pretty baby dry your eyes
I never never make you cry
I promise baby your to precious
I never never make you cry
So pretty baby dry your eyes
I never never make you cry
Cause I believe that I can make you smile
I know a thousand times
You sat alone and cry
You don't deserve it
I believe that I can make you smile
I know a thousand times
You sat alone and cry
Girl you don't deserve it
I believe that I can make you smile
I never never make you cry
So pretty baby dry your eyes
I never never make you cry
So pretty baby dry your eyes
For ever and ever oh yeah I believe...
Oh yeah I believe that...
