Clifford T. Ward, Sal

Sal, Sal, don't go and leave me

Oh stay just a little while longer

Sal don't forsake me I'm sure you can't hate me

I don't want to be on my own.

Sal, Sal, don't be so selfish

It's not one of your traits

I don't understand how I came to upset you

But now that I'm in disarray.

You're deceiving me, grieving me, hurtin'

It's someone else I can see in your eyes

Don't forget how you used to believe in me

Can't we give it just one more try/just one more

Sal, Sal, don't separate us

I don't think I could cope

I'd just be survivin' so stop this contrivin'

You're leaving me without hope.

You're deceiving me, grieving me, hurtin'

It's someone else I can see in your eyes

Don't forget how you used to believe in me

Can we give it just one more try/just one more

Try? Sal, don't separate us

I don't think I could cope

I'd just be survivin' so stop this contrivin'

You're leaving me without hope.
