Injected, Dawn

she threw me away, yesterday her deadbolt locks i feel no shame she always wondered if i'd bend of if i'd break you wanna disappear from here? til daylight comes we'll have no fear.
you pick the place, come closer, whisper in my ear anywhere but here

locked out till way past dawn again strung out before and i never win want to sleep but sleep's just a dream that slips from my hands i bite my lip just enough to stay awake. i never wonder if i'll bend or if i'll break let's disappear, no fear wake up a thousand miles from here

anywhere but here

she let me down anyway
but i won't be around you let me down anyway
but i won't be around
