Color Green, All In My Eyes

There's a place...where I should go
If it ain't real...then I don't wanna know
And in that place....that I've dreamt about There's one way in...and so many out There's no map...that's big enough to show the scale....of all this love that I feel....every time you breathe everytime....you tell me what you need.

It's all in my eyes
It's all in my eyes
It's all in my eyes

I've made mistakes.....I hope they're in the past But if I slip....I'll get up real fast so I don't miss....the slightest thing you do so leave some crumbs....and I'll follow you

It's all in my eyes
It's all in my eyes
It's all in my eyes

And I.....have lost the sun
'Cause I have lost.....more than I have won
But I believe.....that there's a plan
And if God laughs....Then I will understand.....I'll understand

There are snipers in the grass and they're shooting down all lovers
But they'll never aim at us 'cause they'll never see us comin'
And we'll take away their guns and then we'll take off runnin'
to a place that's real.....a place I've seen

In your eyes
It's all in your eyes
It's all in your eyes

It's all in your eyes
It's all in your eyes
It's all in your eyes
