Deadman, Three Murders

three murders three murders what the headlines say they contradict the blackened day and there's nothing that can stop it they say three victims three victims laid to rest the cops all protest they claim to have done their best there's nothing more they can do
there's nothing more they can do
there's nothing more they can do nothing more they can do juarez juarez is a haunted place the ambulances try and race to beat the others to the place where three women all working for the mighty peso can't seem to let it go and the numbers still climb and grow
there's nothing more they can do
there's nothing more they can do
there's nothing more they can do
how long is too long and you've had enough? how little is too late to stop it and the hate goes on and on i hope you see the light of day
