Pink, Anything right

So much to say so little time to explain the way Ifeel
You only see things the way you want to see them
It makes sense to you all these things you do
You got it all figured out while everyone is confused
How do you do it?
In your mind Im just blind
Youre right all of the time I think for myself, I guess Im way out of line
Im not who you are
Im so sorry
Chorus:
I cant do anything right
You dont know me, stay out of my life
Kick me while Im down, I want you to
I cant be like you
Dont want to be like you
No matter what I do its never good enough
I give all that is me; still its never enough
So why try? I give up.
What does it feel to be in your shoes
And walk over everybody like you do ?
Tear me down again, I want you to
Youre lovely, so beautyful
Youre perfect on every way
Your interior rusted. Im so disgusted
Cant trust it
Youre busted
Chorus
