Kitty Wells, Most Of All

Lots of things in life have never mattered I never cared if winter followed fall

But the dreams I hoped for now have shattered

Cause it was you that I wanted most of all

Most of all I've wanted you to love me and live again those moments I recall

But I've had to give you up to make you happy

To give you up was the hardest most of all

[ fiddle - steel ]

It seems we lead our life in quest up treasure a phantom that deludes us one and all

The road of life without you has no measure

Cause it was you that I wanted most of all

Most of all I've wanted you...
