Die Happy, I Remember

Lying in my bed in the sun It's a beautiful morning kissing you awake
smiling while yawning
wake up

Staying in this dream
a little bit longer
playing silly games
seeing who's stronger
wake up

Wherever you go
whatever you say I'll remember
fortune is kind
keep it forever
deep inside

If I would not be with you today I would not believe

I wish the time would stop for a while just for a moment
laughing in the coffeecup it's beautifully boring
wake up

I don't care if the sun fades away, darkness falls
I don't mind, I'm not scared anymore

Wherever you go
whatever you say
I'll remember
fortune is kind
keep it forever
in your mind
Wherever you go
whatever you say
I'll remember
fortune is kind
keep it forever
deep inside

I don't care if tomorrow's grey, I have memories I believe it is worth the wait - got my life to live I don't mind, no I won't be sad 'cause I believe that a day like today will come again and make me smile
