Riverside, Discard Your Fear

Once in the darkness
Of bad memories
You stepped into a trap
But the spring loaded bar
Didn't break your neck
And you remained there

Waiting for better time

Life with your passivity
In the face of choices
Forced you to turn back
Settle with your lies
But the stubborn glass
Doesn't want to talk to you

Waiting for better time
Chairbound and bedridden heart

Chorus:
Discard your fear of the unknown
Be here and now
Just find yourself in peace
Try to free your mind
Wake up
Get unstuck
Let it go
Send your shame to nevermore

Your past
Your distorted thoughts
Closed you in the box
And cluttered up your head
Hewn from happiness
In your fabletown
You're still afraid of

Starting something new this life

Chorus:
Discard your fear of the unknown
Be here and now
Just find yourself in peace
Try to free your mind
Wake up
Let it go
Try to free your mind
Get unstuck
Let it go
Send your shame to nevermore
Send your shame to nevermore

Chorus:
Discard your fear of the unknown
Be here and now
Just find yourself in peace
Wake up
Get unstuck
Let it go
Send your shame to nevermore
Let it go
Scare away your fear
No more

Fear of new life
Fear of days of the unknown
Fear of new life
Fear of new life
No more fear of love
