Longpigs, All Hype

And I am living
Without the love of Jesus in my eyes
It's easier to swallow than collde
The way above the lows and sold your highs
[It's all hype]
When suddenly they strip it when you try
[It's all hype]
I still don't get the joke but nevermind
It's all hype
All hype
But your gonna fall down
Yeh your gonna fall down
And your gonna be round
And your gonna see that I am leaving
The light of baby Jesus far behind
For one with history leaking from her eyes
As always things get tense when things are taught
Twisted and distort
But your gonna fall down
Yeah your gonna fall down
And your gonna be round
And your gonna see
And on for heavens sake
I needed you today
And never having been
The countrysides obscene
I understood the part
But only only one
You've given up the choice
Why don't she dig my voice
And I believe in
The biggest touted answer to the lie
But always when it's caught you in the eyes
Cos ussually it is that I don't mind
It's all hype
It's all hype
