Sarah Blasko, Follow The Sun

Ooh

Ooh
Never wanted it to be that way
I Always wanted you to see the sun
Never wanted it to be that way
I Always wanted you to see the sun

But she was on the outside fading away from you
And seems that somehow she had finally found the truth
Felt life forever haunted eyes face the floor
Feeling somehow life had been here before

I somehow misunderstood what I should be
And wanted it the way that youd rescue me
She is on the outside looking on me
Shes like the sun I follow, Ooh

Waiting for the rain again
Watching as the storm begins
Feeling like Ive done in times before
This time a thousand lost regrets washed up on this shore

I somehow misunderstood what I should be
And wanted it the way that youd rescue me
She is on the outside looking on me
Shes like the sun I follow, Ooh

Never wanted it to be that way
I Always wanted you to see the sun
Never wanted it to be that way
I Always wanted you to see the sun
Never wanted it to be that way
I Always wanted you to see the sun
Never wanted it to be that way
I Always wanted you to see the sun

So you dont want egressions anymore
I know a way of letting go
Cos I cant rely on what Ive learnt
Yeah, yeah, yeah ooh

I somehow misunderstood what I should be
And wanted it the way that youd rescue me
She is on the outside looking on me
Shes like the sun I follow, Ooh

She is on the outside looking on me
(Never wanted it to be that way, always wanted you to see the sun)
Shes like the sun I follow, Ooh
(Never wanted it to be that way, always wanted you to see the sun)
She is on the outside looking on me
(Never wanted it to be that way, always wanted you to see the sun)
Shes like the sun I follow, Ooh
(Never wanted it to be that way, always wanted you to see the sun)
Never wanted it to be that way...
