Echo Image, Good Intentions

So long nothing left to say
Words of passion have faded away
Goodbye with tears in our eyes
Don't you worry I know we'll be ok

Cause I don't know why you
Act the way you always do
I'm trying to believe that you
Have good intentions

Back now to tell you how I feel
I'm so sorry you say those things you do
So hard to let myself believe
You're a stranger I'll never get to know

I never needed so much time from you
I never needed so much time
I'll always sing this song I made for you
Until the day that I grow strong
