Ed Sheeran, Curtains

Utwór 'Curtains' z albumu 'Subtract' od Ed Sheeran (premiera 5 maja 2023r.)

Can you pull the curtains? Let me see the sun shine
I think I'm done with my hiding place
And you found my anyway
It's been forever but I'm feeling alright
Tears dry, we'll leave no trace
And tomorrow's another day

Hide and seek
I am somewhere close away
You won't leave
How long it's been since we started the game?
I can't be seen
And you won't find me today
I can't be
This love, I'll be okay

Are you alright? Baby, don't ask
'Cause you know I never like to talk about that
The inside, see, I always go back
And I always will, obviously
Is it in your childhood? see, there's nothing in your past
But the sadness, promise that it won't last
And the back hurt, I'm tryna take it all back
And there's still more underneath
And that's when you say to me

"Can you pull the curtains? Let me see the sun shine
I think I'm done with my hiding place
And you found my anyway
It's been forever but I'm feeling alright
Tears dry, we'll leave no trace
And tomorrow's another day"

Let me see the sun shine, shine, shine
Let me see the sun shine, shine, shine
Let me see the sun shine, shine, shine
Let me see the sun shine

Hide and seek
Count to ten and close your eyes
Try to breathe
See a message and no reply
Nice to meet
But in reality say goodbye
Life can be so beautiful with the drive

"Are you okay?" Yeah, I guess so
But in some days feels like I'm trapped in a hole
But I keep the quit so the ones around me don't know
The mountain feels so still
And you say that I'm here and that I don't have to carry it alone
And the outside pays in your soul
Still fighting the dark 'cause you leave me so cold
The days not out of reach
And that's when you say to me

"Can you pull the curtains? Let me see the sun shine
I think I'm done with my hiding place
And you found my anyway
It's been forever but I'm feeling alright
Tears dry, we'll leave no trace
And tomorrow's another day"

Let me see the sun shine, shine, shine
Let me see the sun shine, shine, shine
Let me see the sun shine, shine, shine
Let me see the sun shine
