Mary Komasa, Degenerate Love

there’s no heaven for us we have only this moment our future is no bright what’s left is no hope

we live for no tomorrow we have lost for love we found ways to be different

generations
destiny
is the Degenerate Love
destiny

there’s heaven for us we have more than this moment our future is so bright what’s left is our love

destiny
destiny

the Degenerate Love
the Degenerate Love
the Degenerate Love
