Millencolin, Vixen

I take a piece of paper
Make a heart and send it out to you
And I sure wanna cut a paper
I wanna scream and shout
So don't cut me out, cause Vixen, baby, you're allright
You are the sweetest girl that I have met
Don't play hard to get
"N"+"L" is true
You know that I love you

It's not over, baby, it's not the ending
Vixen, I think my heart is mending
It's not over, we're just getting higher
In this super painful game called love

Our relationship is changing
You moved away and I am stuck
On you and in my empty room
But anyhow I wish you luck
You're a fox and I'm a schmuck
And I can't make a chant about anything but you
You know I can't

Call you up close to 5 am
Woke you up again around 7
And all I wanted you to know
Is that I miss you bad
