Motor Ace, For Yourself

walking late last night she called me to her side with her wild pale blue eyes my heart now she did sway away from another that is for yourself, get out nobody can make you cry the
way i have on my hearts divide i swear i could not hide when she held my hand i died of boot heels she did say - you gonna dance them?
i lost my babe, because of my own head until i rise again
for yourself, get out
