The Pretenders, Love Colours

Sun goes down,
Sky turns black,
I can hardly wait for you.
I can't believe,
The madness,
In everything you do.
I used to dream in black and white,
Now I see the world in a different light.
Your love colors,
Colors everything.
Your love colors,
Colors everything.
Now come in to me,
Fill me and fill me.
Show me your colors, baby.
Your love colors.
I slept in fear,
And woke in pain,
Till you came in close to me.
I was cold,
Like frozen rain,
Your kiss melted me.
You speak your mind, just like a child.
Won't be defined,
But when you smile,
Your love colors,
Colors everything.
Your love colors,
Colors everything.
You're coming to me,
Fill me and fill me.
Show me your colors, baby.
Your love colors.
Love colors, everything.
Your love colors, everything.
Show me your colors baby.
Show me your colors baby.
