The Sweet, Teenage Rampage

We want Sweet!
We want Sweet!
We want Sweet!

All over the land the kids have finally started to get the upper hand
They're out on the streets they turn on the heat and soon they could be completely in command
Imagine the sensation of Teenage occupation
At thirteen they'll be learning and at fourteen they'll be burning
But there's something in the air of which we all will be aware
But they don't care! No! No! No! No! So!

Come and join the revolution, get yourself a constitution
And join the revolution now!
And recognise your age, it's a teenage rampage.
Turn another page on the teenage rampage now!

So recognise your age, it's a teenage rampage.
Turn another page on the teenage rampage now (now, now, now...)!

They're getting it on, ain't doing it wrong, and they're gonna do it, it won't be long.
They've gotta be heard, they've got the word they really belong
And now they're coming on strong.
Imagine the formation of teenage legislation
At thirteen they were fooling but at sixteen they'll be ruling
And there's something in the air of which we all will be aware
But they don't care! No! No! No! No! So!

Come and join the revolution, get yourself a constitution
And join the revolution now!
And recognise your age, it's a teenage rampage.
Turn another page on the teenage rampage now!
So recognise your age, it's a teenage rampage.
Turn another page on the teenage rampage now (now, now, now...)!

There's something in the air of which we all will be aware
Yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, yeah, so!

Come join the revolution, get yourself a constitution
And join the revolution now!
And recognise your age, it's a teenage rampage.
Turn another page on the teenage rampage now!
So recognise your age, it's a teenage rampage.
Turn another page on the teenage rampage now (now, now, now)!
Recognise your age, it's a teenage rampage now (We Want Sweet!)
And recognise your age, it's a teenage rampage now (now...now...now...now...now...now...now...no
