Operation Ivy, Chasing The Night standing here in front of the mirror it's gonna be allright tonight feelin hot yeah I'm on fire I'm never ever goin to tire

Tonight
chasing the night it's gonna be alright live my life as I choose I paid the price, paid my dues you know I need no alibi daytime troubles fading nights intoxicating gonna have it all tonight that aint no lie

*CHORUS- Tonight
