Fuel, Forgiveness

Holy water turn to blood

Well baptists come to ---
Everything has ---

Forgive this one, for I have said
"I cannot abide by your discipline"
I crossed that line into eternal
And I can't change my head like I said

Nature beaten to her knees
Vouching for the demon's seed
Now I have seen what I have thrown

Forgive this one, for I have said
"I cannot abide by your discipline"
I crossed that line into eternal
And I can't change my head like I said

The pain on me that's burnin'
That's why I can't go back for friends
Let's go straight for the plank
Let someone else speak for me

Can't you see what we have done
We've ruined it for the little ones

Forgive this one, for I have said
"I cannot abide by your discipline"
I crossed that line into eternal
And I can't change my head like I said

Forgive this one, for I have said
"I cannot abide by your discipline"
I crossed that line into eternal
And I can't change my head like I said
