Paris Hilton, Turn You On

Don't care who's watching me
I do just what i want
Just cus i dance with you
Don't meen your gettin some
Don't get too excited baby
Don't, don't, don't
Cause i might turn you on
Turn you on, turn you out
Give em something to write about

Everybodys looking at me
But its alright
I like attention
The clubs not hot until I walk through
They stop and stare and watch me move
Like damn I like that
Im sexy and you know it
Clap your hands
Ooh it's like that

Cause I might turn you on
Turn you on, turn you out, give em something to write about

As I dance on the table top
Tonight Ill be their liquid dreams
They want a piece of what I got
