Too Bad Eugene, Jack And Jill

jack and jill are breaking up again 'cause she don't like when he gets drunk with his friends. so here's my opportunity to make Jill fall in love with me i'm gonna ask her out this friday night i picked her up and walked her to my car she asked me where we were going, i said not far i took her to the soda shop we laughed and danced and talked a lot and everything was working out just right i called her up to ask her out again her mom said that she's out tonight till ten it seems she and jack talked it over they worked it out all right and now you know they're going out friday night jack and jill are back together again and she's wearing his jacket and his pin but they'll break up again, you'll see and maybe then she'll fall for me until then i'm free every friday i'm so lonely every friday i'll be thinking about jill on friday nights
