Uriah Heep, My Joanna Needs Tuning (B Side To

I was waiting for somebody this afternoon
Hope that she remembered our rendezvous
And when she didn't show just like yesterday
I do the last, I'll find another way ??
One night I saw the stranger across the hall
I knew he was the reason why she didn't call
I wish I had imagined or dreamt the lot
But the heart didn't choose the pain I've got
Now she' turning me inside out
Upside down
And me heart is all a roundabout
Spinnin' round
She's turning me inside out
Inside out
She's turning me inside out
Inside out
Now he's got all so melt with a diamond ring ??
And she was thinking through almost anything
She's like a shadow going up Seventh Avenue
But so what, she's only going where she's used to
I just got one thing to say just before I go
Since he was the offender, I want her to know
Now ??? I'm watching to ??
I'll never raise a thought of what she'd done
