

16 Horsepower, I Seen What I Saw

i seen ya in your red room laughin' with your shinin' coffee can so many wrongs all kinds a goins on held my head an ran

but i hid and did a bit more lookin' saw ya dancin' on the pine porch creakin' mouth open an doors down wide here's what was inside i seen what i saw an these things i do are wrong, that's all an these tales i tales i tell are tall then i climbed up on the big horse strapin' put the spur down to blood he took off 16 horses strong left me lyin' in mud an there i sit until the sun's up shinin' yes an black stands my ride twenty hands high an watchin' spookeyed

my hands on his side
