Gomez, Sound Of Sounds

Do you ever stop and wonder
Where you'd be without her?

You listened, you listened, you listened
To what she said to you

The sound of sounds enlightening

The whisper, the promise, the solace
Of where you're lead to
Yeah

The sound of sounds enlightening you

The sound of sounds enlightening

Have you forgotten who you are?
(Have you forgotten who you are?)
Have you forgotten who you are?
(Have you forgotten who you are?)

Could you ever stop and wonder
Could you live without her?

The sound of sounds enlightening you

The sound of sounds enlightening
Oooh, oooh

The sound of sounds enlightening you
(The sound of sounds enlightening)

The sound of sounds enlightening
