Sabaton, Masters Of The World

We're a small crowd left to rotten
There's many answers left
As the pop is growing stronger
Will metal fade away?

Will we be broken?
Will we go down?

Chorus:

No! We'll never fall
We're the masters of the world
Get up! Let's break those chains now
And party all night long

Chorus

As I'm tweaking with my radio
There's disco everywhere
When I turn on my big TV
Is hip-hop what I plan to seek?

Have we been broken?
Did we go down?
