She Sells, Generation Commination

Its just a case of mix and match
Its just a case of mix and match

Stand around and watch it
Fall into pools upon the floor
Mirrored on the neon sea Searching to find a door

roll the dice and prey...

liberation!!
Domination!!
commination!!

Its just a case of mix and match!!
Its just a case of...

This sturdy stable wont hold me in Ceilings dipping and bottles tipping Listening to the shit which spills from the mouth room is spinning, now, who is winning now one man down who wears the crown?

Im no whisperer of fate, no messenger of doubt just roll the dice and prey...

isolation!!
strangulation!!

Its just a case of mix and match

things are meant to confuse you manufactured as a mess
this product, does it loose you?
guess it is time to confess

this was made to make no sense
just roll the dice and prey...

limitation!!
revelation!!
animation!!

violation!!
generation!!
toleration!!

its just a case of mix and match
its just a case of
