Silje Nergaard, Me Oh My

There I go again I'm losing my head
You in the lead and me being led
Playing little girl lost, led by the nose by you
Do I (?) late for two

Me oh my you chose little old me
To shower with love and sympathy
To have and to hold for as long as you decide
A false false pride

Lost girls can't find their way back
Boy it's hot time for payback
I'm gonna need them
I'm tired of being your plaything
Seeing everything your way

She put him through it
How could she do it
He won't forget it
She were to regret it

Flying solo..

Lost girls can't find their way back
Boy it's hot time for payback
I'm gonna need them
I'm tired of being your plaything
Seeing everything your way

So baby here I am
I'm falling from grace
A table for two, a smile on my face
I raise my glass high, drink to the plans you lay
And the role I'll never play
The role Ill never play
The role Ill never play
