

16th Avenue, First Fall

Verse

Everyone knew that I would take this fall,
My jealousy is bouncing off these walls.
Don't give up, I'm not giving in,
I want you to comfort me.
Never second guessed my feelings,
I want you to stop and see.
Love, if you can feel it, don't deny it, it's love.
And it's all for you.

Chorus

When I go to sleep, all I see is you, no.
When I go to sleep, all I hear is you, no.
When I go to sleep, all I feel is you, no.
Is you.

Verse

Why do I wear my heart, on my sleeve?
Checkmate myself against misery.
Stop lying there's dirt in your eye,
And it's time to come clean.
You meant so much to me,
Why couldn't you stop and see, love.
Love, if you can feel it, don't deny it, it's love.
And it's all for you.

Chorus

Stop right there, this heart belongs to me
