HORIZON IGNITED, Reveries

Injustice will be revealed
Only rage is to be unsealed
Nothing you say nothing you do
Nothing you represent is good
Inside you don't feel fine
Tranquility is mine
Your House Of glass is filled with painful dreams
Don't break the glass with haunting screams
The pathway for you is clear
The time to mourn is near
Destroyed memories
Still haunting reveries
The cradle of discoveries
Your Black heart so diseased
Destroyed memories
Still haunting reveries
The cradle of discoveries
Your Black heart so diseased
Cry out your meaningless words
I Can't hear them anymore
You have disappeared beyond this world
Your ghost in me evermore
The veil of this cold winter morn
Is in my flesh like a painful thorn
Let go of my core
Soon the pain will cease I'm sure
Disappear into the sea
I remember but I can't wait
Disappear into the sea
Lifeless void soon filled with light
Destroyed memories
Still haunting reveries
The cradle of discoveries
Your Black heart so diseased
Destroyed memories
Still haunting reveries
The cradle of discoveries
Your Black heart so diseased
