Tear Garden, Hopeful

What if the demons are dying
But fighting as they fade
What if this last big battle is a just shallow play
What waits on the other side
When the fear has gone away
Was it all for nothing
Will they stand there laughing
Will they see you naked
Where you gonna' hide x3

If you can see it coming
You better be prepared
Cast your faith on the wind
Thats blowing through your hair
Walk upon this fragile world
Like you're walking on air
It was all for something
They will see you laughing
They will see you naked
Nothing left to hide x3
