Jackie Lomax, I Remember (Memorabilia)

II remember a time
When love was endless
And I wasn't restless
And you weren't so helpless

I remember a crime
That you took the blame for
And I can't find the name for Nought to remain for

Memories will play upon your mind
Ah but this is not a game
Pretty soon you'll find
Just the memories remain

I remember a mood
That just wasn't so pensive
And warmth was intensified
By your eyes which tantalised

I remember

I remember
