Jasmine Guy, Here I Am Lost Without You Again

here i am lost without you again
here i am lost without you again what elase is new i'm always lost can never find one true moment in my life i chose to be so diffcult sometimes i wonder if i want to chose my own friends own life own way ohh dont know
here i am lost without you again i'm so confused using the same line over and over again to clear my head my head is spinning badly cause i can't control myself an my emotions

am i using other peoples words in my song i pretend i'm this person is that why i'm so week so tired and hurting myself cause i try too much to change my inside

am i pretending i got a feeling for some one when i dont really here i am lost without you ooo let me get rid of my emotions it's like i don't want to face my going through stuff in life i am such a drummer qween oooo here i am lost without you again why can this feeling go away why am i this way

let me geet rid of the pain let me go back to the beginning and forget what i done wrong just please
here i am lost without you again what's going on inside me i'm going crazy ant i maybe i chose to be diffcult so i have something to wright about cause i'm a boring person

i'm too late to go change us all ohh not a single moment in my life have i felt so special about you oooo
