Jeff Buckley, Fall In Light

ooooo
fall in light, fall in light, fall in light fall in light . . .

feel no shame for what you are
feel no shame for what you are as you now are in your blood
... fall in light

feel it as a waterfall

oooooo
fall in light, fall in light, fall in light
oooooo
grow in light

stand absolved
behind your electric chair
... dancing...
singing

that's the sound within the sound that's the voice within the voice oh-oh-oh oooohhhhhhhhhhh leave your office and cast your fear away leave your own car, leave your pulpit and join us in the streets where we

don't belong

here where there are stars ... throwing light

ooooooooo
fall (fall)

oooooo
grow in light
