Twoface, Slip And Slide

It comes and goes
But I go on forever
I slip and I slide
Let it flame or fade
And the war rolls down like a wind

The quiet dreams in life
Slowly passing by
Heavier than anything on Earth

If this is my war
I'll do anything
If this is my war

It's enough to drive me mad
My shadow is still the same
Release and restore me to the ground
I cant recall
Is this the place that I knew
I suffer
But not for long

The quiet dreams in life
Slowly passing by
Heavier than anything on Earth

If this is my war
I'll do anything
If this is my war

If this is my war
I'll do anything
If this is my war

It's a day of pain
All is over and done
If this can't change
How can I?

Let's beat the twilight
Into flakes of fire

If this is my war

If this is my war
I'll do anything
If this is my war
(If this is my war)

If this is my war
I'll do anything
If this is my war
(If this is my war)
