Varsity Fanclub, Next Life

[Verse 1:]
Outside the air is cold as winter, begins and fall, they say that you are gone
And my mind holds you here, but it's hard to [?] your sounds proves that your nowhere near
It's said it must be strong...
[Chorus:]
But I, can't find the need to take a vow, that you, are gonna love that other life
My life, should'nthave ever faced my death, than to go on without you
I cry cause I can't find the strength to start, but I try, but only to my needs of joy
Flatline I wish my heart could just shut off
Cause I can't go on alone without you
[Verse 2:]
As I say my prayers in bed, I wonder if they'll reach you, or am I just calling out in vein
For everything that has a say, I'm thinking how could this be fair, wonder will I see you there, cause
[Chorus:]
But I, can't find the need to take a vow, that you, are gonna love that other life
My life, should'nthave ever faced my death, than to go on without you
I cry cause I can't find the strength to start, but I try, but only to my needs of joy
Flatline I wish my heart could just shut off
Cause I can't go on alone without you
[Bridge:]
Maybe I'll meet you in my next life, if that's ok with you
Maybe I'll see you through my shining light, until then I'll be blue, yeah yeah...
[Chorus: x2]
But I, can't find the need to take a vow, that you, are gonna love that other life
My life, should'nthave ever faced my death, than to go on without you
I cry cause I can't find the strength to start, but I try, but only to my needs of joy
Flatline I wish my heart could just shut off
Cause I can't go on alone without you
