Jimmy Eat World, Sweetness

If you're listening, woah
Sing it back, woah
String from your tether unwinds
String from your tether unwinds, woah, woah
Up and outward to bind
Up and outward to bind, woah, woah

I was spinning free
With a little sweet and simple numbing me

Are you listening?
Woah
Sing it back, woah
So tell me, what do I need
So tell me, what do I need, woah, woah
When words lose their meaning
When words lose their meaning, woah, woah

I was spinning free, woah
With a little sweet and simple numbing me
Stumble 'til you crawl, woah
Sinking into sweet uncertainty

If you're listening, woah
(If you're listening, are you listening?)
Sing it back, woah
(If you're listening, are you listening?)
And I'm still running away
(I'm still running away, woah, woah)
I won't play your hide-and-seek game
I won't play your hide-and-seek game, woah, woah

I was spinning free, woah
With a little sweet and simple numbing me
What a dizzy dance, woah
This sweetness will not be concerned with me
No, the sweetness will not be concerned with me
No, the sweetness will not be concerned with me
