Vincent Gene, The Day The World Turned Blue

Love is like a window pane
The sun shines in, but it stops the rain
They say that love is blind
To me this is so true
The day the world turned blue
A pill, I thought everything was funny
A pill, and I thought our walks were sunny
Look what they've done to you
I swear I never knew
The day the world turned blue
The day the world turned blue...