Warrior Soul, Can't Fix Your Broken Heart

im dieing inside one more day throw my life out to die i was invited to play
so i tried divine for you
this broken soul,i cant denie
when you drown,i'll help your mind is my hell

this broken soul
this broken hert

im laughing inside one more throw this life out to dry i was invited to stay
so i tried to die for you
beat all alone
the walk is is cold

this broken soul

i cant remember when we grew up instead im seeing sin,and listining to dreams how far away from it were we close enough to fuck it i will find(x4)

you will have to wait
look in his face
tell him about hate
what about everyday

this broken soul
this broken soul
this broken soul
this broken soul
this broken soul
this broken soul
this broken soul,cant
fix your broken heart
