Joseph Arthur, Even Though

i'm gettin cold
you used to have a heart, now i guess its just a stone
you said leave me alone but even though i'm here you know that i'm already gone (gone baby)
even though i'm here you know that i'm already gone (gone baby)
even though i'm here you know that i'm already gone

you've got some time too lets walk hand in hand together and hold our heads up high (hold our heads)
since I can't read your mind you've got to tell me what you're thinking i won't write it in the sky
(i won't write it in the sky)
(i won't write it in the sky)
(i won't write it in the sky)

we're gettin old
we've planted our seeds
and now we wait for them to grow
you said i never show you how i really feel or which way i'm gonna go (go baby)

even though i'm here you know that i'm already gone (gone baby)
even though i'm here you know that i'm already gone (gone baby)
even though i'm here you know that i'm already gone (gone baby)
even though i'm here you know that i'm already gone

we've got some time so lets walk hand in hand together and hold our heads up high (hold our heads)
since i can't read your mind you've got to tell me what you're thinking i won't write in the sky
(i won't write it in the sky)
(i won't write it in the sky)
(i won't write it in the sky)

no one to hold the world will make a dream and we're proud of our bones to find where we belong our shadows will remain even after we're gone (gone baby)

even though i'm here you know that i'm already gone (gone baby)
even though i'm here you know that i'm already gone
(gone baby)
(i won't write it in the sky)
even though i'm here you know that i'm already gone
(gone baby)
(i won't write it in the sky)
even though i'm here you know that i'm already gone
(gone baby)
(i won't write it in the sky)
(i won't write it in the sky)
(i won't write it in the sky)
(baby)
(i won't write it in the sky)
even though i'm here you know that i'm already gone (gone baby)

even though i'm here you know that i'm already gone
