Judith, Sorry

Once you and I where as innocent as kids Love could easy grow to the corners of our hearts unaware of danger we started to grow up
When we discovered borders
I crossed the line

And now I'm sorry from the bottom of my heart
I feel so sorry for the way we had to part
How could I let you go, How could I
And now I'm sorry from the bottom.....
Of my heart

You don't know what you've got till it's gone and all the damage is done we were to in-exprerienced to find our way out to little understanding for each others point of view if i knew then what i know now There's no reason to shout heeey

that i'm sorry from the bottom of my heart
I feel so sorry for the way we had to part
How could I let you go, How could I
Oh I'm so sorry
Heeyy

Now I have grown up and i am all alone i've found myself and now i'm searching for a home no i'm the woman, i wanted to be more independant but is this woman really me

Nothing's left but memories from our lost paradise if i'll ever find it again I would think twice then i would marrie you and have ten kids
I would surrender
Just to be with you Heeeeeeeeeeee

So now I'm sorry from the bottom of my heart
I feel so sorry for the way we had to part
How could I let you go, How could I
Now I'm so sorry
Heeeeeeeeeeeeee

Well I'm so sorry
Well I'm so sorry

How could I let you go, How could I
Well I'm so sorry
Well I'm so sorry
Baby baby, baby baby baby

Well I'm so sorry
Baby baby, baby baby baby

Well I'm so sorry
Baby baby, baby baby baby

Well I'm so sorry
Baby baby, baby baby baby

Well I'm so sorry
Baby baby, baby baby baby