

2 Tyme ft. Jennifer Jones, Missing You

it's over, it's over
it's over, it's over
it's over, it's over
everytime you look at me I don't know what to say, everytime I look at you, it hurts in every way.
take it off the time it's on me you don't need my love,
it's over, it's over
i didn't mind you hurt you boy i didn't mind you tell you look inside even others games i play.
didn't wanna you make it farenthide even know you left me boy fall another girl you call you boo.
even hurts me deep inside, you know my love is true.
it's over, it's over
it's over, it's over
it's over, it's over
it's over, it's over
gonna make it happen, baby.
someday and somehow,
you men to be my one and only baby boy, but it's over, it's over.
