Karate High School, Twice Upon A Time (110%)

Twice upon a time,
We made the same mistake
And fell so far behind.

This place looks familiar,
It feels like I've been here before,
But I'm really not to sure.
(Not really to sure)

So I'm asking(x3)
Is it even possible
To forget what I've learned before and
Have to do this it all again?
Back to the start where it all began, and
I should have told you from the get go.
I should have looked for something unconventional.

Twice upon a time,
We made the same mistake,
And fell so far behind. (x2)

Could you help me forget?
I dont want to remember
All the mistakes I now regret.

So I'm waiting(x3)
For the day that I learn,
That dreaming someone else's dream
Is never the answer.
But its's nobody's fault but my own,

And I should have told you from the get go.
I should have looked for something unconventionial.

Twice upon a time,
We made the same mistake
and fell so far behind. (x2)

Arent we all looking for something unconventional? (x4)
Hoping for a second chance,
To start over again?

I should of told you from the get go,
I should have looked for something unconventionial.

Twice upon a time,
We made the same mistake
And fell so far behind. (x2)

Next time I'll give one hundred and ten percent.
