Kinky Machine, Crooked

With your mouth like rubber
Cut your teeth on shining steel
Talking like my brother
When you tell me how it feels
Always hiding something
Keep your heart under your shirt
Put a shield around you
So that you never get hurt

Crooked you turn, you touch my nerve?
Crooked you turn, every last word
Everything I've ever ???

One eye looking at me
Always turning on your heels
Keep your hands well hidden
Choose the cards you're gonna steal
Put a frame around you
And they nailed you to the chair
But you've come to save me
How'd you make it look so easy

Crooked you turn, you touch my nerve??
Crooked you turn, every last word
Everything I've ever ???

With your mouth like rubber
Cut your teeth on shining steel
You talk like my brother
When you tell me how it feels

Crooked you turn, you touch my nerve??
Crooked you turn, every last word
Everything I've ever ???
Crooked you turn, you touch my nerve??
Crooked you turn, every last word
Crooked you turn, you touch my nerve??
Crooked you turn, every last word
