

22 Pistepirkko, (Just A) Little Bit More

It's a liquid sky in blue moon
The moon is falling down to the pool
Welcome to my biggest ball
Please to meet you, don't say a word
Come along, it's a bisquit time
Bisquit time and a feeling fine
Everybody do the monkey in a hall
It's a liquid sky down by the pool
Everybody need somebody, somebody to say "You're dummy";
Everybody need somebody, someone to call "My honey";
There's a girl with a nerves of gold
Ringing to my telephone
Unknown body at the Millbourn street
Lying on, wearing pinky shades
Attorney Jim is teasing me
See no reason to pay his fee
Me and the girl with the nerves of gold
Drive a pink jeep down through the mall
Everybody need somebody, somebody to say "You're dummy";
Everybody need somebody, someone to call "My honey";
Everybody need somebody, somebody to say "You're dummy";
Everybody need somebody, someone to call "My honey";
Now there is no sense at my home
The dog is pissing on my telephone
Mr Ely from my neighbourhood is lying on his day-off all alone
My roommate is drinking gasoline
Being quiet and feeling clean
Come along it's a bisquit time
Bisquit time and a feeling fine
Everybody need somebody, somebody to say "You're dummy";
Everybody need somebody, someone to call "My honey";
Everybody need somebody, somebody to say "You're dummy";
Everybody need somebody, someone to call "My honey";
Everybody need somebody, somebody to say "You're dummy";
Everybody need somebody, someone to call "My honey";
Everybody need somebody, somebody to say "You're dummy";
Everybody need somebody, someone to call "My honey";
Everybody need somebody, somebody to say "You're dummy";
Everybody need somebody, someone to call "My honey";
