

24-7 Spyz, Judgement Day

Judgement day

There will come a time when everything will have to end
When all the wrong youve done will be your only friend and as the clock runs down you start to lose control
No one can save you now because you sold your soul
God wants to know - what you thin think youre doing God wants to know - what is it youve done
God wants to know - did you hear the warning
I want to know - will I be the one?

chorus:

Judgement days here - now its time to meet your maker
Judgement days here - heaven or hell one will take ya Judgement days here - think about the life youve led Judgement days here - yeah! yeah!

Why do you try to hide, you cant escape your past Youre not the first to sin and you will not be the last Just do for others what you want done back to you Cause if youre positive, God will see you through

Pre-chorus

The time is coming and the world is gonna blow and only God decides exactly where well go take my advice and listen to the words I say
If you live righteous then your life will be okay
