Lagoona, There Is An Angel

There is a time for you and me,
if you are ready you will see.
We will be together all night long,
you will never ever be alone.

When all the good things come to you,
and all the bad things can't come through.
You know it it a fact that you can't hide,
there is an angel by your side.

So do not worry, and do not cry,
Don't be afraid and don't ask "why?".
I'll stop the tears from falling when you're sad,
I will protect you from the bad.

You can not see me, but I'm here,
always around, and always near.
When life is hard and the well of hope has dried,
I'll be the angel by your side.
