Megadeth, Headcrusher

It's time to take your last walk in this world before your journey begins underground.
Not before we torment you from your cell, straight to hell!
With a short detour in between.
Begging for mercy you?re all alone,
unable to handle the pressure.
Before it's mortification!
Now let the torture begin!

Death from Headcrusher
Headcrusher!
Death from Headcrusher!

The horrific torture device.
for those who fail interrogation,
the most painful technique ever know,
people thirst for the worst
the skull's disintegration
Beaten, broken, in bloody wreck
Adding insult to injury!
Heed the cast but its much too late
Now let the torture begin!

Death from Headcrusher
Headcrusher!
Death from Headcrusher!

On your knees prisoners take your positions place your chin forward into the restraint your head slowly caves in from the compression you'll faint to black out from the infernal pain
Twisting, jerking the shiest move
Your teeth are breaking loose crushed and splintering into your mouth Winding down, cutting through Like broken glass being chewed
Your fragmented skull and shattering bones
There's nothing you can do!
