Miguel Bose, Want You More

Don't you know
These are troubled times
Anytime is trouble time
We used to share our way ev'ry day
You give me heartache
And then you walk away

Don't you know
There is no time in our time
All those moments we cared
They seemed like hours we shared
A heart full of love I gave it away
I gave it all away

I want you more than anybody else
I want you, I want you, can't you tell?
I want you more than anybody else
Don't keep me guessing
Don't keep me guessing...

Don't you know
There were so many times
I wished that you could feel the same
And felt that love was just a game
You give me heartache
And then you walk away
Don't walk away
Don't walk away...

I want you more than anybody else
I want you, I want you, can't you tell?
I want you more than anybody else
Don't keep me guessing, don't keep me guessing
Don't keep me guessing, don't keep me guessing...

I want you more than anybody else
I want you, I want you, can't you tell?
I want you more than anybody else
Don't keep me guessing
Don't keep me guessing...

You more than anybody else
I want you, I want you, can't you tell?
I want you more than anybody else
I want you, I want you, can't you tell?...
I want you more than anybody else
I want you, I want you, can't you tell?...
