Milla Jovovich, There Ain't No God For Dogs

I'm a good old dog
Runnin' down the road
Barkin' at the moon
Runnin' Wild

I'm a good old dog
Got nothin' to do with any of you
Caress my head, and I'm yours for life
I kill anybody that's hurted you

Headlights in the road
Headlights make me blind
I got nothin' to do with any of you
Two great spots of light

Good old dog never knew a thing
Wasn't no pain, just the sound of the crack
Bones cracking beneath the tires
Would have killed anybody that hurted you

There ain't no god for dogs (x4)
